Shipping and Delivery:

Orders in the United States are shipped for delivery by UPS or USPS. All orders are charged a flat rate of $8.00. Most orders in Louisiana and Mississippi are delivered next day. Overnite or other shipping methods will be billed at actual shipping rates. Drop shipping is available for an additional $4.50 per box.

Shipping Damage:

If you receive a shipment that appears damaged, do not refuse the shipment. Please keep the shipping box for return. We will file the claim with the shipping company. Contact us immediately to get a remake order started. Shipping damage is outside of our control, and we are only responsible for replacing the damaged product.

Print Size and Cropping:

We use state of the art digital printers throughout the lab. These machines all have tolerances that need to be adhered to for producing prints. To prevent thin white lines from appearing on the edge of your prints, every image is slightly enlarged when printed onto the paper. This means you will lose a little of your images around the edges. The amount lost will vary slightly depending on which printer it is made on. For this reason we recommend you keep all important information at least a .25 inch from the edge of the image. Also, any product with length or width within .125 inch of published size, will not be remade.

Color Management:

*Use 8 bit sRGB color files. We accept .jpg, flattened .tif and .png files. No LZW compression should be used, and no extra channels, layers, or layer masks can be in the file.

Digital file names must be alpha-numeric only. Do not include any special characters including !@#$%^&(){}

Ordering:

The easiest and best way to get digital images to the lab is through ProColor ROES. This online ordering system is available on our website, www.professionalcolor.com at the online ordering tab. Every product we offer is available from ROES. You may also submit your files on a CD or flash drive. A $5 handling fee will be added to your order.
